PC MEDIA TECHS, LLC

Promotional Design Professionals

Formerly ProFRESHional Creations LLC, PC Media Techs is a full-service website and promotional design agency that helps small businesses, companies, and non-profits struggling to establish or maintain their brand online, by crafting custom design strategies and workflows tailored to position them for the best results online.

OUR VISION

Our vision is to help 1 million brands exceed their visions. We take pride in being the go-to trusted design agency for bringing visions to life online and taking your brand to the next dimension!

OUR MISSION

We're on a mission to help business minds and creative entrepreneurs become multi-faceted, successfully operating multiple brands and streams of income online with ease.

ABOUT US

We are serious about helping small businesses, companies, and non-profits that are struggling to establish or maintain their brand online, by crafting custom design strategies and workflows. Our promotional design agency provides industry-specific design and tech solutions for growing brands.

We specialize in websites, visuals, content creation, and user-friendly automated workflows. At PC Media Techs we don't just design visually appealing content, we emphasize the importance of first designing a solid foundation and structuring that content for best results and digital overflow!
